

DEMOCRATIC NEWSLETTER APRIL 2009

Message from the Chairs

President Barack Obama and First Lady Michelle Obama you made us proud! President Obama said he was in Europe to listen and lead, not lecture. He went to strengthen global alliance and solve world problems. He said he planted a seed which would grow in the coming months and years. To sum it up, President Obama is a statesman! I'm sure all of us watched with pride!

First Lady Michelle Obama showed her warmth and confidence. She was approachable whether she was greeting school children or Queen Elizabeth II of England!

Great St. Pat's party! Again, thanks to Loren and Karri for hosting. Thanks to all who attended the Mayoral and City Council Candidate Forum. Helen Kelly did a great job as moderator.

Dr. Joe Gow, UW-L Chancellor, will speak at the April 27th. meeting (DATE CHANGE). He will discuss the budget implications and future of UW-L. Also, the discussion on financing and staffing a year- around office for the La Crosse County Democratic Party will be discussed at the April 27th. Your input is needed, as this will be your office to staff and finance.

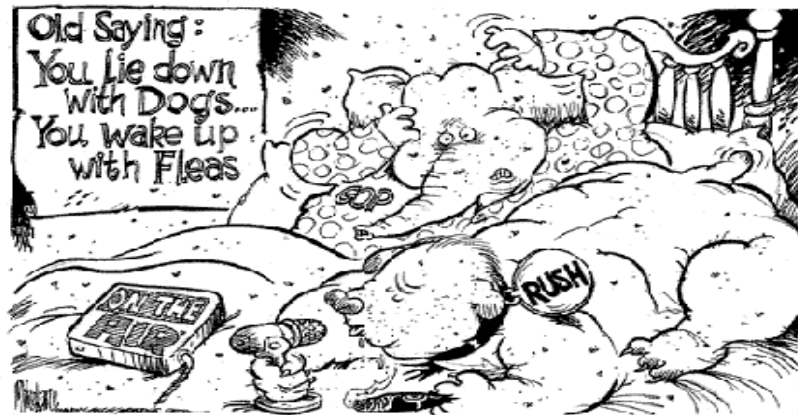

Mike Tate, candidate for Democratic Party of Wisconsin State Chair, and Melanie Franklin, Third CD Chair, will be at the May 18th. meeting.

Mark your calendars for the Sept 21st. meeting. Mike McCabe, Director of Wisconsin Democracy Campaign, will speak. Of the Wisconsin Supreme Court races he has said, "We're headed down an extremely dangerous path that has turned our (Supreme Court) election into an auction." Don't miss this speaker!

Remember to renew your membership. The membership amounts are listed below. Please send the amount with your name and address to La Crosse County Democratic Party, P.O. Box 1861, La Crosse, WI 54602-1861

Obama Agrees: Franken Won The Most Votes

By Sam Stein, The Huffington Post

The Obama administration stated its support on Tuesday for a three-judge panel ruling that Al Franken had received the most votes in the Senate election in Minnesota. But spokesman Robert Gibbs wouldn't go so far as to call for Franken's seating.

"I haven't talked to the President about that action," Gibbs said about the possibility of Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid putting the Democratic challenger in Congress, "other than just to say what the three judge panel ruled as it pertains to this case and who received the most votes." It was one of the first - if not the first -- comments on the recount from the White House.

panel ruled that Franken had won the most votes at the conclusion of the recount process. Former Senator Norm Coleman will almost certainly appeal the decision to the state Supreme Court, an action that would prolong the already lengthy race even further.

Asked for a response to the ruling, Gibbs said the administration's position was the same as the panel's. He added that the White House looked forward to having another Senator (not Franken by name) in Congress.

"On behalf of the administration, we would state exactly what the three judge panel said," Gibbs told reporters. "And that was that the election was conducted in their terms fairly, impartially and accurately. And that Al Franken received in that election the most votes. We look forward, hopefully soon, to having an additional U.S. Senator representing the people of the state of Minnesota."
