MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR

Fellow Democrat,

We did it. We made history. We elected Jennifer Shilling to the State Senate!

Senator Shilling will replace former State Senator Dan Kapanke who marched in lock step with Governor Walker as he took away the rights of Wisconsin workers and who we recalled in record time.

We made a huge statement to all of those who threaten the values we hold dear in our state and nation. We put La Crosse County Republicans, Wisconsin Republicans, and national Republicans, all on notice.

Senator Shilling's election received national coverage from the likes of CNN, MSNBC, Fox News, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, etc., etc.

Congratulations to Senator Shilling who was inaugurated last month and to all of you who helped elect her.

We also made a major statement on Labor Day as nearly 200 of you marched with us in the annual La Crosse Labor Day Parade. Thank you to all who marched with us.

However as you all know – we are not done yet. We have many more events coming up this month and next. Likewise, while we all recognize that recalling Dan Kapanke was an incredible fete, recalling Governor Walker remains our ultimate goal and we must remain vigilant and energized as we approach the moment where we do just that – and I know that we will.

Shilling and King Send The Right Signals

CapitolTimes

MADISON — Wisconsin’s recall elections have changed the political dynamic in the state, creating a Senate so closely divided — with 17 Republicans and 16 Democrats — that members of the two parties will have to cooperate to get anything done.

And the newest members of the Senate are sending the right signals. Jennifer Shilling, the La Crosse Democrat who defeated Republican Sen. Dan Kapanke in the Aug. 9 recall voting, used her swearing in to make a case for the sort of cooperation that Kapanke and most Senate Republicans (the notable exception is Dale Schultz, R-Richland Center) rejected earlier this year.

“I hope we can put these things behind us and move ahead,” says Shilling. “The governor has set a tone of wanting to work in a bipartisan fashion on issues this fall. Well, the proof is in the pudding, and I hope he is sincere about that. Certainly I am ready to roll up my sleeves and work with my new Democratic colleagues and my new Republican colleagues as well.”
